

Legendary Pickups - Endorsement Application

Thanks for reaching out!

I am always extremely humbled by the amount of interest that people give Legendary Pickups. Thank you for giving the brand a chance this far and taking the time to consider Legendary as another tool in your musical endeavours. It truly is a reward in its own right and I look forward to the potential of working together.

If you have any questions at all, please contact Jason via the Legendary Instagram / Facebook or email legendarypickups@outlook.com

ENDORSEMENT

Endorsements with Legendary must attract some interest from your fan base. Typically, we look for active social media / content creators with a following that is reflected in their music sales & streams as well as live performing guitarists who will be actively using the pickups in their band's performances. Essentially, people who will actively draw in attention to the endorsement. Legendary Pickups is a small operation and discounts are a huge financial undertaking for a brand of this size. Ultimately, the business has costs that have to be met and you need to do your part in making this viable. Endorsements can, and will be pulled if there is justified reason to do so.

What Legendary will offer will depend on what you can offer in return. Generally, this in the form of discounts on products and artist perks. This will be based on the return that you can provide to Legendary and will be discussed on an individual basis.

- 1. Affiliate link for potential buyers with commission payable to the artist.
- 2. % discount on products.
- 3. Bio page on website
- 4. Additional perks (individually discussed)

REQUIREMENTS

There are some guidelines to be considered when reaching out for artist endorsements.

- 1. Personal Social Media following of 1000+ or Band / Artist page following of 3000+
- 2. Active social media presence / live performances / events, reflective of the following you have.
- 3. Active engagement with your fanbase.
- 4. Promotion of the brand, either passively or actively publishing content.
